THE BERKELEY RIVER LODGE

KIMBERLEY COAST, WA,
AUSTRALIA

If you want to truly escape the cold without heading overseas, try a trip to the Kimberley in the Northern Territory. Lying between the Timor Sea and Berkeley River, The Berkeley River lodge is one of Australia's most remote coastal lodges and only accessible by plane. The property is a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World portfolio and has 20 villas with outdoor bathrooms with either ocean or river views. Guests can unwind and experience white sand beaches, rugged river gorges, waterfalls and the history of the Kimberley.

Dining: The lodge's restaurant Dunes, overlooking the Kimberley coastline, serves cuisine using fresh produce – the bread is baked three times daily. Head chef Paul Seymour has a reputation for being meticulous with his dishes and personalising any menu to suit guests. A casual dining experience offers breakfasts cooked to order and multi-course degustation lunch and dinner menus that are paired with a fine selection of Australian wines.

What to do: The Kimberley offers one of the most remote recreational fishing spots in Australia. Heli-fishing, river, estuary, beach and boat fishing are some of the experiences on offer. These fishing experiences include return scenic air transfers daily from Kununurra and Darwin, accommodation in a luxury villa and all gourmet meals along with fishing activities and excursions. Other activities available include heli-tours, river cruises, guided hikes, wilderness picnics, bush and beach 4WD tours and sea turtle viewings. Helicopter tours can include scenic flights, half-day tours to the Mitchell Falls, Kalumburu Museum tours, ancient rock art adventures and a prime position to catch the sunrise.

Priced at A$3,475 per person, twin share, it includes three nights' accommodation in a private luxury villa, gourmet meals and select beverages, return scenic transfers departing daily from Kununurra and a range of activities and tours.
