

Herald Sun (Melbourne)

Tuesday 15/12/2015

Page: 16
Section: Confidential(HSM)
Region: Melbourne, AU
Circulation: 344061
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 643.00 sq.cms.

slice
CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

CONFIDENTIAL

confidential@heraldsun.com.au

LUKE DENNEHY @lukedennehy
luke.dennehy@news.com.au 9292 1987
JACKIE EPSTEIN @jackieheraldsun
jackie.epstein@news.com.au 9292 2543
NUI TE KOHA @nuionline
nui.tekoha@news.com.au 9292 1199

Nat back with Rogues

NATALIE Bassingthwaighte has rejoined multi-platinum band Rogue Traders.

The Melbourne band, whose hits include Voodoo Child, In Love Again and Way to Go, will play a New Year's Eve show at Rochford Wines in the Yarra Valley.

The foursome (above) got back together in September to play a corporate show on the Gold Coast, prompting a string of offers for more live shows.

Bassingthwaighte will juggle more potential concerts with a reactivated acting career, including playing Julie Bamford in the new Peter Brock miniseries.

"I'd really missed music," Bassingthwaighte said. "I'd kind of forgotten I was an artist. I've been a judge and a mentor and a host and then it's been thrilling to remember, 'That's right, I do this, too'."

Rogue Traders mainstay James Ash said the band started getting calls from promoters to do shows for the 10th anniversary of their album, Here Comes the Drums.

In 2005, the album sold more than 300,000 copies — figures most bands would kill for now.

Ash will be joined by Bassingthwaighte, guitarist Tim Henwood and drummer Cameron McGlinchey.

Bassingthwaighte has fond memories of Rogue Traders — she is married to McGlinchey, and the pair have two children.

"We're lucky we've had such a good career and good relationship," she said.

"Lots of kids have been born, James had two kids already, we've got two kids now. Our kids are too little to see this show, we're on at midnight. But they're starting to realise what we do."

Tickets are available from rochfordwines.com.au

CAMERON ADAMS

Herald Sun (Melbourne)

Tuesday 15/12/2015

Page: 16
Section: Confidential(HSM)
Region: Melbourne, AU
Circulation: 344061
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 643.00 sq.cms.

slice

CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

