LISTINGS

1 A DAY ON THE GREEN

How is this gig not sold out? Quick, beat the crowds and see Hoodoo Gurus, Sunnyboys, Violent Femmes, Died Pretty and Ratcat. Tasmania's favourite adopted son and Femmes member Brian Ritchie says "the bill is complementary and elegant." Take it back to '83.

ROCHFORD WINES, SAT, 2PM, $99-$350, ADAYONTHEGREEN.COM.AU.

2 ALDOUS HARDING

I swear this isn't paid advertorial. It's just that The Gaso keep putting on gigs like Aldous Harding, Jess Ribeiro and Seth Frightening. Fun fact: Marlon Williams reckons his better half Harding is "a savage rapper." Will they do a hip hop LP? Take it to 2017.

THE GASOMETER, COLLINGWOOD THU, 8PM, $20. BOOK 9416 3335

3 ST GERMAIN & OISIMA

I once interviewed St Germain via a translator, Endorphin (take it back to '98). Took one for the team there, it was a bad idea on paper and even worse IRL ... unlike the third, self-titled album by Ludovic Navarre which has Malian instrumentation and brushes of jazz and holds its own.

THE FORUM, CITY, MON, 8PM, $79, TICKETMASTER.COM.AU
