Hop lovers should hop on down the Princes Hwy on Saturday and get their hands on more than 200 handcrafted beers and ciders at what's described as Australia's biggest beer garden.

The Great Australian Beer Festival returns to the Geelong Racecourse for a day of all things beer, including seminars led by author, critic and judge Pete Mitcham (aka Professor Pilsner) on how to taste beer, beer and food matching, and home brewing.

Great Australian Beer Festival, this Saturday from 11am-7pm. Tickets $39.50. For more info, gabfgeelong.com.au
