EAT STREET

1 MAHJONG
165 Fitzroy St, 9534 8833
There's no trolley service but the weekend pastime of yum cha is nevertheless popular at this glass-fronted pit stop. The extensive menu reveals yum cha and Cantonese faves including pork and prawn shui mai and salt and pepper calamari.

2 LUXEMBOURG BAR & BISTRO
2/157 Fitzroy St, 9525 4488
On the site that was Golden Fields until it shifted to the city and into witness protection as Supernormal, Luxembourg is top chef Andrew McConnell's new French bistro, named after Paris' Jardin du Luxembourg gardens. Order oysters and bubbles at the bar, or a T-bone with bearnaise sauce and onion rings.

3 MILK THE COW
1/157 Fitzroy St, 9537 2225
This licensed fromagerie has up to 150 different types of cheese in its cabinet at any one time. Opt for a "tasting flight" which matches cheese with your tippie of choice — beer, wine, whisky, cider or sake — or go avant-garde with Bella Vitano designer cheese rubbed in coffee, merlot or raspberry ale.

FITZROY ST, ST KILDA

The non-beachy end of Fitzroy St has evolved into a foodie haven, taking you from France to Sri Lanka with breakfast, booze and cheese to please, as MEGAN MILLER discovered

4 FITZROVIA
2/155 Fitzroy St, 9537 0001
An atrium-style space leads up to a more traditional federation-style dining room with lovely park and city views. But when the sun's out be one of the pavement posse enjoying a spot of people watching as you tuck into an all-day breakfast or steak sanger. Also does great gourmet picnic hampers.

6 RALIYA ST KILDA
157 Fitzroy St, 9078 6757
At the helm of Hawthorn stayer Araliya since 1985, Sam and Dee Wedande spread their wings bayside in June to their second outpost. It's the same modern Sri Lankan cuisine but in a chic new dining room. Specialities include jaggery beef using Blackmore wagyu brisket.

5 THE GEORGE
125 Fitzroy St, 9525 5599
The front bar of the landmark corner building is re-opening soon post-renovation, but the site retains its title as champion multi-tasker also housing the George basement bar, the White Bar, the George Lane Bar and the excellent mod-Indian diner Babu Ji accessed via Grey St.
