QUEST TO RULE THE CASTLE

MODERN youngsters have the opportunity to be king or queen of the castle — albeit for a day.

Ballarat's Kryal Castle has launched a challenge where children who find magical shields hidden around the castle and solve riddles win a family pass to come back.

Squire Jed, 5, was sharpening his skills in a duel with Phillip Leitch for the challenge, and will be doing his best to claim the title these school holidays.

After reopening its drawbridge following a major upgrade, Kryal Castle now offers daily jousts, knight training, a Romeo and Rapunzel show and pony rides.

The castle's indoor area also offers arts and craft activities, calligraphy and potion making.
